Services

Toast Bartending Service, LLC provides the following service for events:

- Retail Liquor & General Liability Insurance
- Assistance with beer, wine, and liquor inventory amounts to ensure your guests' continued service throughout the event
- Handling of host's alcohol inventory including ordering, picking up, & returning unused product making the bar an affordable turn-key experience for you! We work closely with local retail stores and beer & wine distributors to insure you have the product you want at the best prices.
- We provide set-up and break down before and after the event along with all of the following:
- Entire bar(s) if needed, stemware, glassware and icing of beverages (refrigeration of white wine to maintain labels)
- Emphasis on presentation (candles and decorative touches to compliment the event) and cleanliness as well as efficient, friendly and professional staff
- Clean-up of bar area: removal of trash, dumping of ice, packing up remaining beverages.
- Tearing down of bar and returning the space to its original state.
- The base price for services includes bar(s), tables, linens, trash cans & liners, decorative candles/candle holders, linens to match the event, baskets, and additional tables, bar tools for serving, napkins (white or ivory), and stemware (for wine service).
- Liquor service includes insulated ice containers and ice for mixed cocktails, additional bar tools, juice decanters, garnish containers, and 9oz plastic cups for cocktail service along with the mixers and garnishes for a very reasonable additional charge.

We offer the following individualized service:

- Serving of specialty cocktails for service throughout the event or for specified times such as cocktail hour
- Multiple bar areas located in & outside of the venue to provide optimal service to your guests and keep the party moving (shade or covering may be required depending on time of day/year of your event)

Payments

A deposit of $150 is required at this time to reserve your date and insure insurance coverage is arranged. Of this deposit, $50 is non-refundable. The due date for the balance varies by event but is typically due the day prior to the event or at the time of alcohol delivery. Also, all monies should be received before services are rendered.

Inventory Delivery

Most events are “host-provided” and are “open-bar” where drinks are given without charge to guests. For a small fee, the alcohol provided can be purchased and delivered by the host or representative and is typically scheduled to be delivered on the day prior to the event depending on the venue and location of the bar(s). A member of our team will be present at the scheduled time to assist in moving, organizing, and checking for completeness of delivery. However, we would like provide you with an even more hands-off experience! We will complete the ordering, transport to the venue, and complete the returns for you at no additional charge.

**We do not operate beer kegs at events for groups larger than 30 guests due to the time it takes to provide this service.

For Insurance Purposes

Guests are not supposed to self-serve alcoholic beverages at any point prior to, during, or after the event on the premises of a rented event venue.

Bartenders are not expected to serve beverages prior to or after the contracted times and will kindly notify guests if asked. They are our guests as well and take extra care to make them feel catered to at all times.

Responsible drinking is required for all guests. All persons consuming alcohol must be at least twenty-one (21) years of age and have a valid photo ID available upon request. The bartender(s) have the right to request ID from a guest who the bartender believes may be younger than legal drinking age. The bartender(s) have the right to refuse alcohol to a guest if he or she is overly intoxicated or may be under age and does not show proper ID.
